UM REPS TO VISIT LEWISTOWN SEPT. 5-6

MISSOULA --

University of Montana President James Koch and 35 UM representatives will visit Lewistown Tuesday-Wednesday, Sept. 5-6, as part of a Sept. 5-8 bus trip to central and northern Montana.

The tour will also take in Helena, Great Falls, Fort Benton, Havre, Cut Bank, Browning, Kalispell and smaller towns along the way. The group aims at fostering better relations between UM and residents of those communities as well as strengthening ties with UM alumni and other Montanans.

On Tuesday the UM delegation will arrive in Lewistown at 5:30 p.m. From 7 to 9 p.m. there will be a centennial ice cream social with UM alumni and community leaders in the Lewistown City Park. At 8 a.m. Wednesday, a news conference will be held in the Boardroom of the Yogo Inn.

Also at 8 a.m. Wednesday, some group members will go to Geraldine High School, arriving there at 9:15 a.m., while others will visit about Lewistown. The group will reunite in Fort Benton to continue the tour.

Accompanying Koch on the tour will be UM faculty and staff members, administrators and students. Among them will be Vice President for University Relations Sheila Stearns; UM alumni

Director Bill Johnston; and student government President Aaron Aylsworth.

During the tour, Koch will address high school students and join UM faculty members in teaching high school classes. Other activities for the group will include main-street visits, press conferences and get-togethers with alumni and friends of the university.
